Electronic Mind Control

"For the first time in history, one human being, from hiding, at a distance, can control the thoughts and actions of another, by way of undetectable hypnosis, using still-classified electronic technology. These devices have totally disabled the world's justice systems. Those who have them use them without any fear of being caught or being prosecuted. That is what this site is about."

One reason that the general public, media, and uninformed government officials scoff at the truth of our story is that people tend to focus on the personal testimonial aspect, and ignore the crucially important unclassified and commercial devices which can duplicate, right now, some of the effects we report. <http://www.raven1.net/ravindex.htm>

Much research is currently being done on human brain waves called alpha waves.

Now you can build your own IC controlled Brainwave Receiver and experiment with this interesting physiological instrument. These plans also contain information on transcendental meditation, "Alpha State" and other information about this exciting new field! <http://www.futurehorizons.net/psi.htm>
